Certified Apparel Designer

Certification Code : VS-2195

Apparel designers, also called clothing or fashion designers, conceptualize and create items of clothing. They often specialize in one type of design, such as casual, evening or active wear.

It's nearly impossible to walk into a clothing store and not see a plethora of designs on the apparel being sold. Whether you're aiming to design for a specific company or brand, or license your work as a freelancer, knowing what it takes to be an apparel designer is crucial for your career to be successful.

Why should one take this certification?

The certification exam helps working professionals in improving skills and getting better equipped for the job or for the purpose of proving the employer that you possess the skills required to perform the task. The certification helps build your CV and acts as an additional qualification that significantly improves your chances of getting the desired role.

Who will benefit from taking this certification?

Job seekers looking to find employment in the field of apparel design, fashion houses, export houses, students generally wanting to improve their skill set and make their CV stronger and existing employees looking for a better role by proving their employers the value of their skills through this certification.
